ARTICLE I: NAME

The name of this organization shall be the Arizona Legislative District 10 Republican Party of East Mesa, hereinafter referred to as the District. The District is affiliated with the Arizona Republican Party (AZGOP) and the Maricopa County Republican Committee (MCRC).

ARTICLE II: OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the District are to protect the unalienable rights endowed to us by our Creator as enumerated in the Declaration of Independence, and to limit government to its proper role as defined in the United States Constitution and Bill of Rights. In pursuance thereof, the objectives of the District shall further be to:

1. Support and elect Republican candidates who promote Republican ideals;
2. Encourage Republicans who promote Republican ideals to run for elective office;
3. Promote Republican appointments to commissions, committees and other appointive public offices;

4. Assist in voter registration and promote Republican voter participation in elections;
5. Recruit and educate Precinct Committeemen (PCs) and maintain a permanent Republican precinct organization;
6. Increase the effectiveness of Republican volunteers in the cause of good government through active political participation;
7. Promote an informed electorate through political education.

ARTICLE III: MEMBERSHIP

Membership is subject to the approved Legislative District 10 Bylaws. Procedures not covered here shall be governed respectively by the Arizona Revised Statutes (A.R.S.), the Continuing Bylaws of the Republican Party of Arizona (AZGOP), the Continuing Bylaws of the Maricopa County Republican Committee (MCRC), or the most recent edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised.

SECTION 1. QUALIFICATIONS

The membership of the District consists of the total number of elected and appointed Republican Precinct Committeemen (PCs) in the District as most recently published by the Maricopa County Recorder and residing in the precinct from which elected or appointed. Elected and appointed PCs possess all rights of membership, except that only elected PCs may:

1. Vote at District statutory organizational meetings;
2. Serve as District Chair;
3. Serve as State Committeemen (SCs);
4. Vote for nominees to fill vacancies in the State Legislature.

SECTION 2. DUTIES

In addition to those duties prescribed by the A.R.S, the AZGOP bylaws, and the MCRC bylaws, the duties of the members of the District shall be to:

1. Support the Objectives of the District;
2. Inform and serve registered Republicans in their precincts;
3. Campaign on behalf of Republican candidates;
4. Carry nominating petitions and distribute election information and candidate literature;
5. Distribute signs and campaign literature for candidates;
6. Participate in Get Out the Vote (GOTV) and Election Day activities;
7. Help develop, maintain, and support a permanent Republican precinct organization;
8. Regularly attend meetings of the District and the County Party;
9. Help recruit and train new volunteers for the Republican Party;
10. Assist the Republican Party in voter registration;
11. Refrain from endorsing or otherwise supporting non-Republican candidates or candidates who oppose the Objectives of the District.

SECTION 3. TERM OF OFFICE

The term of office of a PC is two years and begins on October 1 after the Primary election at which the Precinct Committeeman was a candidate and continues until October 1 after the following Primary election at which PCs are elected. A delay in taking the oath of office does not affect the start of the term.

SECTION 4. VACANCY

1. Definition. Vacancies are created due to events including but not limited to:
 - A. Resignation;
 - B. Moving from the Precinct in which elected or appointed;
 - C. Failure to maintain registration as a Republican;
 - D. Vacancy also occurs when less than a full quota of PCs is elected at the primary election.
2. Filling of Vacancy. Pursuant to the process described in the MCRC bylaws, the District Chair and the Precinct Captain are charged jointly with recommending appointments to fill PC vacancies.

SECTION 5. CONTACT INFORMATION

1. Members must provide contact information, including an email address, if available, to the District;
2. The District must utilize member email addresses solely for District business;
3. A contact list of the members in a precinct, including email addresses, must be provided to any member of that precinct, for District business only, within seven days of request;
4. The email addresses of members who do not permit the release of their email address must be excluded from the list provided in the previous paragraph;
5. Members who do not maintain a valid email address with the District must request in writing that the District send meeting notices via postal mail.

ARTICLE IV: SUBDIVISIONS

SECTION 1. PRECINCTS

1. Boundaries. The District is divided into precincts as specified by the Maricopa County Board of Supervisors.
2. Precinct Captain. Unless otherwise specified in the Maricopa County Republican Committee (MCRC) bylaws, District precinct captains must be selected and governed as follows:
 - A. Selection.
 1. The newly elected Precinct Committeemen (PC) in every precinct with two or more members must meet on or after the start of the new term to elect a captain from among their number. The PC obtaining the highest number of votes in the primary election or their designee may call the meeting;
 2. If the PC of any precinct fail to elect a Precinct Captain, the District Chair must appoint a member from that precinct to serve until the members from that precinct meet and elect a Precinct Captain;
 3. If there is only one PC elected or appointed, they will serve as Precinct Captain until such time as there are sufficient PCs to hold an election.
 - B. Duties.
 1. Recruit PCs to fill vacant positions;
 2. Organize PCs within the precinct;
 3. Recruit precinct volunteers;
 4. Coordinate precinct activities, including Get Out The Vote (GOTV) activities;
 5. Encourage all precinct workers to attend District meetings;
 6. Provide political activity information to precinct members not in attendance at district meetings;
 7. Organize the precinct in the most efficient manner for distribution of campaign literature, collection of nomination petition signatures and GOTV activity;
 8. Recruit and train PCs and recommend replacements for PC vacancies to the District Chair.
 - C. Term. The term of office of a Precinct Captain coincides with the term of a PC.
 - D. Removal. A majority of the PCs of the precinct may call a meeting for the purpose of removing the Precinct Captain. The quorum, at such meeting, is 50% of the elected or appointed PCs:
 1. The District Chair must preside or appoint a presider. The presider must not be a member of that precinct.
 2. The Captain of that precinct may be removed by majority vote of elected and appointed PCs and a new Precinct Captain is elected.

ARTICLE V: OFFICERS

SECTION 1. ELECTED OFFICERS

1. Number. The District elected officers may include: Chair, First Vice Chair, Second Vice Chair, Third Vice Chair, Fourth Vice Chair, Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary which may be one person, and Treasurer. The appointed executive board members are non-voting.

 - B. All District elected officers must be a PC who resides in the District.

- C. If an officer moves within the District and is appointed a PC in their new district within 60 days, they shall continue to hold their District office.
 - D. No member may hold more than one elected office at a time, except that the offices of either the Recording and Corresponding Secretary or one of the Secretary offices and the Treasurer may be filled by the same person. If one person acts both as both Secretaries or one of the Secretary positions and Treasurer, that person has only one vote, and counts as only one member for the purpose of a quorum.
- 3. Term.
- A. Elected Officers assume their duties upon the adjournment of the meeting at which they are elected.
 - B. Current Officers must surrender all pertinent documents and accounts if not re-elected. Officers serve until position is vacated or through the next statutory District organizational meeting or until their successors are elected.
 - C. If an elected officer of the District fails to be re-elected as a PC, a vacancy is created in that officer's position at the end of the PCs term of office.
- 4. Vacancy. Vacancy is caused by reasons including:
- A. Death;
 - B. Insanity, when judicially determined;
 - C. Failure to maintain registration as a Republican;
 - D. Resignation;
 - E. Removal from office;
 - F. Ceasing to be a PC residing in the District;
 - G. Absence from the state beyond a period of three consecutive months;
 - H. Ceasing to discharge the duties of office for a period of three consecutive months;
 - I. Failure of a person to be elected or appointed to the office.
- 5. Filling of Vacancy. Vacancy in any elected District office is handled pursuant to the Maricopa County Republican Committee (MCRC) bylaws.
- 6. Multiple Vacancies. If a Board quorum cannot be achieved due to multiple officer vacancies, the MCRC chair may appoint pro tem officers from the MCRC membership to fill the vacancies for the sole purpose of, and for only such time as necessary, for the District to elect permanent replacements pursuant to the MCRC bylaws.
- 7. MCRC Executive Guidance Committee (EGC) Representation.
- A. In the absence of the District Chair, the First Vice Chair or Second Vice Chair, in that order, must represent the District at an MCRC EGC meeting.
 - B. In the absence of both, the First Vice Chair and the Second Vice Chair, the District Chair may give their proxy to any other District PC to represent the District at an MCRC EGC meeting.
- 8. Removal.
- A. The District Chair may be removed in accordance with the MCRC bylaws.
 - B. A District officer or State Committeeman (SC), other than the District Chair, may be removed from office at any meeting of the District by a 2/3 vote, provided that a notice of the proposed removal is sent no later than ten days prior to the meeting and an announcement of the proposed removal was made at the previous District meeting.
 - C. An Officer, other than the District Chair, who is not present at three or more consecutive Board meetings during a term may be removed by a majority vote at a District meeting. The Officer to be removed must be notified in writing no later than ten days prior to the meeting at which the vote will be held.

9. Mandatory Resignation. A District officer must resign their officer position upon declaring candidacy for a paid elected office or accepting a compensated position for:

- A. A campaign committee for a paid elected office;
- B. a political action committee;
- C. or an independent expenditure committee.

Establishment of an exploratory committee shall not trigger this requirement.

10. Duties of Elected Officers. District elected officers must perform the duties prescribed by these bylaws, the bylaws of the MCRC and by the adopted parliamentary authority.

A. Chair.

- H. District deliberations must be held in executive session;
- I. Any disciplinary action imposed requires a 2/3 vote for adoption.

4. Confidentiality. Issues submitted anonymously must not be considered by this committee. Actions taken by the committee made in executive session, other than those that would expose the District to charges of libel, shall not be subject to the confidentiality requirements of executive session.

SECTION 3. SPECIAL COMMITTEES

1. The Board may establish special committees.

2. The scope of each special committee is limited to its specific purpose as stated in the resolution or motion establishing the committee.
3. Unless otherwise stated in the resolution or motion establishing the committee:
 - A. The District Chair appoints the chair and members of the committee;
 - B. The committee must be composed solely of District members.

ARTICLE VII: DISTRICT MEETINGS

SECTION 1. CONDUCT OF MEETING: GENERAL

1. Notice.

- A. Meeting notice must be issued for any District meeting at which business may be conducted.
- B. The meeting notice must be sent no sooner than 28 days and:
 1. No later than ten days prior to the meeting if an election is to be held;
 2. No later than seven days prior to the meeting if no election is to be held;
 3. To District PCs as recorded and published by the Maricopa County Recorder's Office via:
 - a. Email to all District PCs who have provided an email address in writing to the District Secretary or U.S. Mail;
 - b. U.S. Mail to all District PCs who have not provided an email address to the District Secretary and who have requested in writing that the District send meeting notices via U.S. Mail;
 - c. PCs who have not provided an email address to the District Secretary nor requested in writing that the District send notices via

U.S. Mail shall not receive meeting notices.

C. The meeting notice must include:

1. The date, time, and place of the meeting;
2. The agenda;
3. Business that requires previous notice, such as proposed Bylaw amendments, if any;
4. For meetings at which elections will be held, the additional meeting notice requirements specified in the Elections section of these bylaws;
5. For meeting which will be held virtually, the additional meeting notice requirements specified in the District Standing Rules for Virtual Meetings.

D. The above procedures satisfy meeting notice requirements.

2. Quorum.

- A. A quorum must be present for the transaction of any business at any District meeting.
- B. In quorum calculations, District Membership is defined as specified in the Definitions section of these bylaws.
- C. The quorum for transaction of business is:
 1. Organizational Meeting: 25%;
 2. Regular or special meeting other than the Organizational Meeting: 15%;

- 3. Quadrennial Convention Delegates election meeting: 25%;
- D. For State Legislature nominee election meetings, the quorum is 50% of elected PCs only.
- 3. Agenda. The Chair and the Board collaboratively develop the agenda/program for each District meeting. Each District meeting agenda/program may include a "New Business" heading under which members may make motions for consideration by the District membership.
- 4. Virtual. Meetings of the District may be conducted by electronic devices, when so directed by the Board; or in the case of special meetings, when so directed by those calling the special meeting. Conduct of Virtual Meetings must be as specified in the District Standing Rules.
- 5. Accommodations. Individuals with disabilities covered under the Americans with Disabilities Act must request special accommodation a reasonable amount of time prior to the start of the meeting.
- 6. Proxies.
 - A. Except as required by the Maricopa County Republican Committee (MCRC) bylaws, proxy voting must not be permitted for any purpose in any District meeting or any meeting of any committee or board of the District. Where the MCRC bylaws do require that proxy use be permitted, the following rules must govern their usage unless specified otherwise in the Arizona Revised Statutes (A.R.S).
 - B. PCs eligible to vote at a District meeting where proxies are allowed may give their proxy to a registered Republican living and registered in the same precinct as the giver.
 - C. Proxies may not be transferred to a third party.
 - D. No proxy carrier may carry more than two proxies.

- E. Proxies are valid solely on the date of the meeting for which they are created.
- F. The proxy must:
 - 1. Conform to the specification contained in the MCRC bylaws;
 - 2. Be signed by the giver within ten days of the meeting at which it is to be used;
 - 3. Be attested to by a notary public or by two witnesses, not including the proxy carrier or the proxy giver.
- G. At any meeting at which proxies are used:
 - 1. Proxies must be submitted upon registration;
 - 2. At registration, the Credential & Tally Committee (C&T) must have each PC voter sign in opposite their name in a "Present in Person" column, and, for each proxy carried, sign opposite the proxy's name in a "Present by Proxy" column;
 - 3. The C&T Committee will issue each PC voter a ballot for themselves and for the number of proxies they carry;
 - 4. The C&T Committee must certify the presence of a quorum before any business may be conducted;
 - 5. Members present by proxy count towards the quorum.

SECTION 2.

ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING

- 1. Objective. District members must convene an organizational meeting for the purpose of electing officers and State Committeemen (SC). Other business may be conducted.
- 2. Date. Unless otherwise required by the A.R.S, this meeting must be held no earlier than the second Saturday following the general election and no later than the first Saturday of the following December.

3. Notice. The Organizational meeting notice must additionally include:

- A. The list of officers to be elected;
- B. The number of SCs to be elected;
- C. That any elected PC desiring to run for any District office, for SC, or both, must submit their name, and the title of the office or offices sought, in writing, to the Precinct Captain. The Precinct Captain must submit (said submitting) documentation to chair of the Nominating Committee by the deadline stated in the call;
- D. The name, address, email address and phone number of the Nominating Committee chair;
- E. A list of announced District officer and SC candidates seeking election at the meeting.

4. Recommended Precinct Meetings.
Precinct Organizational Meeting.

A. Precincts that elected more than two PCs:

- 1. A precinct organizational meeting shall be held no later than two weeks prior to the District Organizational Meeting;
- 2. This meeting shall be arranged and conducted by an out-going Precinct Captain, or a member of the Executive Board. A group of Precincts can meet at one time and place;
- 3. Business shall include:

- a. Each PC shall complete and sign a nomination questionnaire, Exhibit A, stating personal preferences regarding nomination to party leadership;
- b. Elect a Precinct Captain. The term of office is two years beginning the day after the Precinct Organizational Meeting;
- c. Nominate "preferences" for SC to fill the quota of one SC per every three elected PCs. The nominees should COMMIT to attending the State Mandatory and Statutory meetings held in January. If more PCs will commit to be a SC than the quota, they can run as an At-Large SC. The precinct nominated preferences for SC shall be listed on the ballot separately with a one check vote option;

d. The Precinct Captain must turn in a report on the results of the meeting to the District Chairman no later than two weeks prior to the District Organizational Meeting.

B. Precincts that elected only one PC: The lone Committeeman (automatically Captain of the precinct) fills out the nomination questionnaire and the Precinct Mandatory Meeting Report. There is no guaranteed seat on the State Committee, but there may be an available seat in the District. The report should reach the District Chairman by October 10th. NOTE: All those interested in running for District leadership should be contacted by the Nominating Committee no later than one week prior to the District Organizational meeting.

SECTION 3.

DISTRICT STATUTORY ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING

1. Nomination. The Board shall be the Nominating Committee.

- A. Signed nomination questionnaires shall be submitted to the nominating committee one week prior to the District Organizational meeting by everyone wishing to have their name appear on the ballot. Everyone who wishes to be nominated for a position

- of leadership shall be placed on the ballot if their signed nomination questionnaire reaches the District Chairman one week prior to the District Organizational meeting;
- B. It may be necessary for the Nominating Committee to recruit candidates and/or adjust fractional problems;
 - C. A PC shall be nominated for no more than one of the District offices; Please refer to Article V, Section 1, Subsection 2D.
 - D. District quota for State Committeemen shall be determined as follows:
 1. The District may nominate one SC for every three PCs elected in the immediately preceding Primary Election;
 2. If the number of PCs who wish to become elected SCs is less than the quota (number of open seats), then all may be nominated by acclimation at the District Statutory Organizational Meeting;
 3. If the District quota is less than the number of PCs who want to become elected SCs, a two-tiered vote for the contested seats will be held at the District Organizational Meeting. The first vote will consist of PCs that are nominated at their Precinct Organizational Meeting for the State Committee. The second vote will consist of "at large" (from the Precinct Organizational meeting), PCs that were nominated at the Precinct Organizational meeting but not elected, and floor nominations for all unfilled positions. Floor nominees must be physically present and accept the nomination.
2. Vacancy. In case of vacancy in a SC position, the District Chair must advise appointment of alternates in order starting with the alternate with the highest number of votes, and not consent to any appointment out of this order.

3. Reporting.

- A. A list of SCs and alternates, in the order of number of votes received, will be announced to the District membership no later than the adjournment of the meeting at which the election was held, and must be included in the meeting minutes along with the vote tally.
- B. The District Chair must certify the election results of State Convention Delegates and Alternates to the chair of the AZGOP and to the chair of the MCRC at least ten days prior to the MCRC statutory organizational meeting.

SECTION 3.
REGULAR MEETING

1. Number. Regular District meetings must occur at least six times in odd numbered years and at least ten times during even numbered years, and must be scheduled as specified in the District Standing Rules.
2. Agenda/Program. The agenda for regular meetings must allow for the introduction of business by District members.

SECTION 4.
SPECIAL MEETING

1. Call. Special meetings may be called by:
 - A. The District Chair;
 - B. The Board, or;
 - C. Upon the written request of ten percent (10%) of the District membership as specified in the Definitions section of these bylaws.
2. Purpose. The purpose of the meeting must be stated in the Notice, which must be sent at least 10 days before the meeting. No business other than that stated in the Notice may be transacted at any special meeting.

ARTICLE VIII: ELECTIONS

SECTION 1.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

1. Selection.

- A. A Nominating Committee of three members must be elected at the regular meeting preceding the organizational meeting. Nominations for members of this Committee must be made from the floor. The three candidates receiving the highest number of votes constitute the committee, and they must elect their own chair.
- B. A tie vote for the last position must be broken by a second ballot among the tied candidates.
- C. The District Chair must not be a member of the Nominating Committee.
- D. Election to the Nominating Committee does not preclude the right to run for office.

2. Duties. Manage the nomination of officers State Committeemen (SCs), State Convention Delegates and any other elections as may occur. In pursuance thereof, the Nominating Committee must:

- A. Recruit qualified and eligible candidates;
- B. Apprise the candidates of the duties of the corresponding office;
- C. Secure a commitment from each candidate to fulfill the obligations of the office if elected;
- D. Nominate all those eligible and desiring to serve;
- E. Submit the name of at least one nominee for each office;
- F. Not nominate a PC for more than one office simultaneously;
- G. Produce a written ballot.

The Nominating Committee may arrange for debates among candidates.

3. Term. The Nominating Committee serves for the period through the following

Primary Election or until a successor is elected. Vacancies occurring between elections are filled by Board appointment.

SECTION 2.

CREDENTIAL & TALLY COMMITTEE

1. Selection.

- A. The Credentials and Tally Committee (C&T) must be appointed by the District Chair from PCs who have not been nominated for any elective position, if possible. The committee members must select one of their number as chair.
- B. If additional C&T Committee members are required to expedite an election related task due to the number of ballots to be processed, the District Chair may select supplementary members at the time of the election.
- C. C&T members must not be close relatives of any candidates in the election.
- D. In any election, each candidate may designate one person as an observer at the time the ballots are counted.

2. Duties.

- A. Duplicate or otherwise prepare the ballots;
- B. Prepare an alphabetical list of all valid electors for the meeting;
- C. Conduct the verification and sign-in of eligible Precinct Committeemen (PCs);
- D. Distribute corresponding credential tags if used;
- E. Certify the number of eligible votes at the close of registration;
- F. Handle ballot distribution and pickup during voting;
- G. Tally by hand, machine count, or electronic, certify the results and;
- H. Report the voting results to the District Chair for announcement.

SECTION 3.
CONDUCT OF ELECTIONS

1. General.

- A. Notice. In addition to other meeting notice requirements specified in these bylaws, the meeting notice for any meeting at which an election may be held must include:
1. A list of all elective positions available for nomination and election at that meeting;
 2. A list of any qualified and announced candidates for any elective position at that meeting.
- B. Agenda. At meetings in which an election is to be held, the election takes precedence over all other business.
- C. Credentialing.
1. Eligible PCs must present a photo ID with an address that matches the District roll as published by the Maricopa County Recorder's Office. In the event the address on the Photo ID does not match the rolls, a Photo ID presented with two forms of identification indicating the residence address (such as utility bills) may be accepted;
 2. The C&T Committee will certify the number of eligible votes as of the call to order and determine the presence of a quorum. It must present its report for adoption by the membership.
- D. Nominations.
1. All PCs who have been presented to the Nominating Committee, by the deadline stated in the meeting notice of their intent to run, and who are qualified to serve, must appear on the ballot;
 2. Nominations for all elective offices may be made from the floor at all meetings where elections are held;

3. Floor nominees must be present in person and express their eligibility and willingness to serve in the office for which they are nominated.
- E. Campaigning. All candidates for election may conduct campaigning activities, including posting wall signs (if not prohibited by the facility, then being used), and distributing campaign literature.
- F. Ballots.
1. Voting for elective offices will be made by ballot except where only one nominee is being considered for an office, in which case election may be by acclamation;
 2. Multiple elections may be combined onto a single ballot at the discretion of the C&T Committee;
 3. The ballot for all elections must contain, in alphabetical order for each office, the names of all qualified and announced candidates;
 4. The ballot must include space for floor-nominated candidates and write-ins.
- G. Voting.
1. Those in line with completed ballots at the close of polls must be allowed to vote;
 2. The C&T Committee must count the ballots at the close of the polls;
 3. In a contested election each candidate may designate one person as an observer at the time the ballots are counted;
 4. The procedures for electronic voting in the District Standing Rules must be followed.
- H. Announcement of Results. Final results must be announced as soon as they are available, but in any event before the meeting is adjourned.

- I. Preservation of Records. At the close of elections all ballots (both used and spare) must be processed in accordance with District Standing Rules.
 - J. Election Certification. Election results must be certified and signed by the chair of the C&T Committee. Itemized recording of the vote tally must be entered into the minutes of the meeting.
- 2. District Officers.
- A. A PC may be nominated for no more than one District office at a time.
 - B. If the District Chair is running for re-election in a contested election, a chair pro tempore must be appointed to conduct the election.
 - C. Each candidate for elective District office may have nominating and seconding speeches not to exceed three minutes in total.
 - D. District officers must be elected by majority vote, utilizing the Exhaustive Ballot Method. In accordance with the Exhaustive Ballot Method:
 - 1. If a candidate receives a majority of the votes cast in a round of balloting, that candidate is elected;
 - 2. If no candidate receives a majority of the votes cast, the candidate receiving the fewest votes is eliminated and another round of ballots must be cast;
 - 3. Subsequent rounds of elimination and balloting must be conducted until a candidate receives a majority of the votes cast in an individual round of balloting and is elected;
 - 4. If two or more candidates are tied for the lowest number of votes in a round of balloting, the candidate to be eliminated may be determined by any method agreed to by all the tied candidates. If no agreement can be reached, the eliminated candidate must be determined by lot;
- 5. Candidates may withdraw after any round of balloting prior to the next round of balloting;
 - 6. The withdrawal of a candidate after a round of balloting shall not prevent another candidate from being otherwise eliminated unless the withdrawing candidate and the other candidate are either the only two candidates remaining or are both tied for receiving the fewest number of votes in the previous round of balloting.
 - 7. Recount. If the vote count differs by 1%, or less, the losing candidate may ask for a recount of the ballots cast (e.g. if 101 votes are cast, and the result is 51 to 50, the losing candidate may ask for and receive a ballot recount; if 300 votes are cast and the result is 151 to 149, the losing candidate may ask for and receive a ballot recount).
 - 8. Reporting. Newly elected officers take office at the adjournment of the meeting at which they are elected. The newly elected District Chair must certify the election results of all election results to the chair of the MCRC within seven days following the elections.
- 3. Quadrennial Convention Delegates
- Upon the call of the Republican National Committee (RNC), the District must convene to elect delegates and alternates to the Convention.
- A. Notice.
- 1. In addition to the meeting notice requirements for election meetings specified in these bylaws, the call letter for the meeting where quadrennial convention delegates will be elected must be publicly posted and must include:
 - 2. The place, date, and time of the State Convention.

3. The number of Delegates and Alternates to be elected.
4. Instructions providing that any District PC, or Registered Republican, resident in the District and desiring to be a candidate for Delegate to the State Convention shall submit their name in writing to the Nominating Committee by the deadline stated in the call;
5. The name, phone number and address of the Nominating Committee members to whom the notice of candidacy may be submitted.

B. Date.

1. The meeting to elect the District's State Quadrennial Convention Delegates must be held at the first regular District Meeting that follows official Convention notification from the AZGOP and that provides sufficient time to provide the required meeting notice;
2. If time constraints of the State Convention date prevent holding this election at a regular meeting, a special meeting for this election may be held.

C. Campaigning. Nominating and seconding speeches are not allowed for Quadrennial Convention Delegate candidates.

D. Election.

1. Delegates and Alternates to State Convention must be elected by plurality vote from a written ballot listing the names of all registered Republicans residing within the District who have placed their name into nomination;

2. Only PCs of record as of December 31 of the year immediately preceding the presidential election year are eligible to vote;
3. Delegates and Alternates are elected in the order of the number of votes received from highest number of votes earned to lowest;
4. Pursuant to the rules of the RNC, there must be no proxies at any District meeting or convention held for the purpose of electing or selecting delegates to the national convention;
5. Ties will be decided by chance using a deck of cards. High card wins, in the case of a tie, high suit wins (Spades/Hearts/Diamonds/Clubs).

E. Alternates. Alternates are those candidates receiving the next highest votes below the elected Delegates. Alternates serve according to priority determined by number of votes received.

F. Reporting.

1. State Quadrennial Convention Delegate Election results must be certified and signed by the chair of the C&T Committee.
 2. The District Chair must certify the election results of State Quadrennial Convention Delegates and Alternates to the chair of the AZGOP within three days following the election.
4. State Legislator Nominees. If a vacancy occurs in the State Legislature and the seat was held by a Republican Party member of the District, the District must recommend candidates to fill the vacancy in accordance with the A.R.S.

ARTICLE IX: FUNDS

1. Expenditures.

A. The District Chair may authorize any expenditures up to the limit specified in the Standing Rules for routine expenses such as printing, copying, and postage.

B. Disbursement of funds for expenses other than routine, or that exceed the limit for routine expenses specified in the Standing Rules, require approval of the Board.

C. Expenditures are to be reimbursed upon presentation of a receipt to the Treasurer.

2. Account. All funds obtained by the District must be deposited in the District account within seven business days of receipt.

3. Contributions. Before making any contribution from the District, regardless of the amount, the contribution must be authorized by the Board. Such contribution must be only to a candidate, committee, or organization that has been endorsed pursuant to these bylaws.

4. Audit.

A. Committee. The District Chair must appoint an Audit Committee upon a change in incumbency in the office of Treasurer. The Committee must consist of at least three District members who did not serve on the Board during the previous 12 months.

B. Audit. The Audit Committee must conduct an audit of the financial records of the District upon a change in incumbency of the Treasurer, and at such time as the Board or District Chair requests. The Audit Committee must report their findings to the District membership at the subsequent meeting for approval.

ARTICLE X: OTHER ACTIVITIES

SECTION 1.

ENDORSEMENTS

1. Primary Elections.

A. Endorsement by Officers: In a contested Republican primary election, no elected Officer of the District may claim to speak on behalf of the Executive Committee, Board, or the District in support of a candidate in the Republican Primary Election unless authorized to do so by a 2/3 vote at a regular District meeting.

B. Endorsements by the District: Any position the District may take regarding candidates in any Republican primary election requires a 2/3 vote.

C. Any restriction concerning endorsements of candidates in Republican primary elections shall not apply to individual PCs.

2. General Elections. No member of the District may provide financial support or declare public support, approval, or endorsement for a non-Republican candidate in any election in which there is a Republican candidate for that office.
